LAKEWOOD FIRE DEPARTMENT ACKNOWLEDGES THE LAKEWOOD POLICE DEPARTMENT'S COMMUNICATION DIVISION FOR COLLABORATIVE EFFORTS IN ESTABLISHING AN ALARM ASSIGNMENT PROGRAM

The Lakewood Board of Fire Commissioners along with Fire Chief Jonathan Yahr proudly acknowledges and commends the exceptional efforts of the Lakewood Police Department's Communication Division in the creation of an innovative Alarm Assignment Program for the Fire Department.

At its February 12, 2024, meeting, the Board recognized the invaluable collaboration and dedication demonstrated by the Communication Division. Their unwavering commitment to public safety and efficient emergency response has significantly contributed to the development and implementation of this program.

The Alarm Assignment Program, a joint initiative between the Lakewood Police Department and the Fire Department, stands as a testament to the cooperative spirit within our community's public safety agencies. This innovative system aims to enhance communication and coordination between the departments, ensuring a more rapid and effective response to emergency situations.

Chief Yahr, of the Lakewood Fire Department, commends the exemplary work of the Lakewood Police Department's Communication Division, stating, "The success of the Alarm Assignment Program is a testament to the dedication and professionalism of our colleagues at the Lakewood Police Department. Their commitment to public safety and seamless coordination has significantly improved our emergency response capabilities."

"We extend our sincere appreciation to the Lakewood Police Department's Communication Division for their outstanding work and dedication to the safety of our community. The Alarm Assignment Program is a testament to their commitment to excellence in public service," stated Fire Commissioner Harrison Pfeffer, Vice-Chairperson of the Lakewood Board of Fire Commissioners.

The Lakewood Board of Fire Commissioners looks forward to continued collaboration with the Lakewood Police Department, fostering a strong partnership that prioritizes the safety and well-being of our residents.
